New East Jordan Industry Seen Possible With Formation of New Non-Profit Corp.

East Jordan's newly developed Businessman's Association held its first get-together meeting Friday evening at the American Legion Hall.

Chairman McDaniel stated that the purpose of this meeting was to organize an East Jordan Industrial Development Corporation. A non-profit corporation, it's purpose is to raise funds to provide housing facilities for manufacturers who wish to locate in this region.

Forty-four businessmen of East Jordan attended this meeting, along with many of their wives. Considerable enthusiasm was evidenced at this meeting, most of those present being excited over the prospect of additional industry in the community.

Five members were elected to the Industrial Development Corp. at this meeting. They are: Robert A Campbell, Albert Sinclair, Mayor Leo Sommerville, Dr. J. VanDellen and Ed Portz. They are to elect three other members and their own officers.

At a meeting of the above five held Monday, four other members were chosen to join them. They are: Earl Clark, Howard Porter, Clarence Healey and Lysle Johnston. Tuesday morning the group made a tour of East Jordan surveying possible industrial sites.

This hurriedly-called meeting was brought on by an inquiry received locally for housing for a manufacturing concern requiring from 15,000 to 20,000 square feet of floor space that could be purchased on reasonable terms plus interest. The inquiry stated that East Jordan would be given first consideration. The firm normally employes around 80 men and women.

It was voiced by those in charge of this meeting that perhaps around $30,000 could be raised by local investors with an additional $20,000 to be obtained by a loan secured by a first mortgage.

Businessman's Association

Chairman McDaniels announced that the East Jordan Businessman's Association was formed recently "over a bottle of beer" so to speak, by local fellows who were getting tired of counting the empty buildings on Main St. each morning. Dues are $5.00 per month. The main purpose of the organization is to improve business conditions by attracting industry to East Jordan.

Funds left in the now defunct Chamber of Commerce, totaling $57.00, were turned over to the Association at this meeting.

Albert Sinclair, vice-chairman, stated at this meeting, "We are tired of idle talk, the time has come to go all out and attempt to attract more industry, or, bluntly, put up or shut up".

Chris Taylor, chairman of the membership committee, states that dues for January 1 to February 1 are now due and payable to him at his store. Chris says that this organization is defintely not out soliciting membership and only those interested in the promotion of East Jordan are asked, on a voluntary basis, to leave their first month's dues of $5.00 at his store. As of Tuesday morning there were 37 paid-up members.

Thomson - Benson

Miss Irma Jane Thomson and Roger Ray Benson were united in marriage in a double ring ceremony at the home of Rev. Childs, pastor of the Inglewood Methodist Church, Dec. 24, at 2:15 p. m.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Noel Thomson of Inglewood, Ohio, and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin R. Benson of Bay Port, Mich.

The attendants were Joan Gilleland and Bill Southerland, friends of the bride.

For the service the bride wore a beige street length dress with a corsage of red roses. The bridesmaid also wore a beige street length dress. Her corsage was of white carnations.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents for the immediate families. The young couple left on a wedding trip to Bay Port to visit his parents and to East Jordan where they are spending their honeymoon at the Alfred Rogers home.

The bride is a graduate of the Randolph High School with the class of '52. The groom was graduated from East Jordan High School with the class of '51 and at present is attending Aberdeen Proving Officers Candidate School in Maryland.

After their honeymoon the bride will finish her Beauty School in Dayton, Ohio, then join her husband where he is stationed in Maryland.

Robert Benson of Ann Arbor attended the wedding.

Victor Hurlbert of East Jordan was found guilty at a jury trial Dec. 30 before Justice Charles Murphy on charges of driving a motor vehicle while under the influence of liquor.

He was fined $50, $33 costs, 3 days in the county jail, and loss of his drivers license for one year.

CHARLEVOIX BOY'S LEG AMPUTATED

Charlevoix — Tom Fessenden, 15, Charlevoix High School basketball guard, who suffered a badly shattered lower right leg in a hunting accident Nov. 30, had the leg amputated above the knee at the Charlevoix hospital Wednesday.

Hospital attendants said his condition was fair. He was injured the last day of the deer hunting season when he was hit by a bullet fired by Theodore Malpass, Jr., of East Jordan, who told authorities he was firing at a wounded deer.

Accompanied by three hunting companions, Fessenden had stepped to the top of a stump behind a clump of bushes when he was struck by the bullet. The accident occurred in Antrim county. A sophomore in the local high school, the Fessenden boy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Fessenden. — Grand Rapids Press

New Boiler Arrives At Creamery

The Jordan Valley Co-operative Creamery has purchased a 200 h. p. Scotch type Boiler from the James Leffel Co., Springfield, Ohio. The boiler arrived in East Jordan on the E. J. & S. R. R. first of the week and Bill Porter with his crane have been unloading and skidding same into the Creamery boiler room

Weighing 52,000 lbs., this boiler will replace a 80 h. p. "lemon" that the Creamery installed when it moved to its new building. Only four years old, it never lived up to the claims made for it, and was a continual source of trouble as the creamery's demand was bigger than the boiler was ever able to produce.

This new 200 h. p. oil burning boiler will be installed beside a 175 h. p. oil burning boiler now in service, according to Mgr. Percy Penfold.

TRUCK FIRE CALLS OUT FIRE DEPARTMENT

March of Dimes Starts January 1st

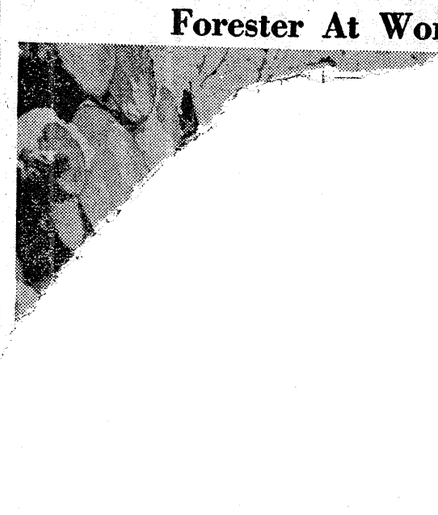

The local committee announces the beginning of the 1953 March of Dimes and solicits the cooperation of all organizations and individuals in making the 1953 drive as successful as last year. Charlevoix County rated tenth place in the state in 1952 on a per capita basis.

There were ten cases of Polio in our county last year and all received help far beyond our contributions. We sincerely hope there will be less in 1953, but we cannot afford to not be ready for an emergency.

There will be canasters in all the business places for your convenience, also suppers will be held, and a Mother's March is being planned for one evening.

Remember, Polio shows no preference and one one of us may be glad to be able to get some assistance in the future, so lets everyone get behind this worthy and put East Jordan ON TOP. Do what you c

Ellsworth Village Marks Another Year Without Fire Loss

(Ellsworth)

As 1952 passed into history, this village of 400 persons marked up another year without a fire loss. The last fire in the village occurred in May 1950, a small roof blaze with a $25 loss.

Peter Wieland, 78-year-old chief of the volunteer department says "We surely are lucky." Wieland served five years in Grand Rapids as a fireman before coming to this vicinity about 40 years ago. He reports the department called out 11 times in the year, twice on grass fires, five chimney fires from which no loss resulted, twice to other communities and twice on calls when two barns burned in the rural area which were beyond saving when the fire crew arrived. Fire fighting equipment is owned jointly by the village and Banks township. Members of the department are: Assistant chief, Charles D. Edson; drivers Levi Donaldson and Grant A. Hastings, and Robert Smalley, George Koster, Arthur Drenth, Andrew Kooyer, William Petter, Henry Elzinga, Max Bolser, Arthur Ruis, Herbert Peebles and Melvin Essenberg.

FARM FACTS

from your County Agricultural Agent

Ed. Rebman, Co. Agr'l Agent

DEFECTIVE WIRING CAN BE DANGEROUS

"Temporary wiring" may be around just long enough to blow a fuse, set fire to a building or give someone a "permanent" jolt, warns Ed Rebman county agricultural agent. Slipshod repairs, tacked-on extentions, insulation neglect and use of defective supplies can endanger an entire wiring system.

All electrical wiring, extentions and repairs should be checked by qualified persons, according to the National Safety Council, and temporary wiring, unnecessary extention cords and makeshift installations should be avoided.

Check your wiring systems, outside and inside advises the county agricultural agent. Insulators break, insulations fray and swinging wires get short-circuited on trees and other objects. Defective switches, loose junction clamps and damaged appliances are set to give trouble.

Buy good quality cords and plugs made for the job, advises Rebman. Avoid plastic caps that break easily and those hard to take hold of to pull out. Use cords with asbestos insulation for heating and heavy rubber-jacketed cords for motor operations. Avoid kinking or injuring cords. Watch circuit loads and fuses. Ordinary household circuits with No. 14 wire should have 15-ampere fuses; if one blows, somethings is wrong —an overload or a short-circuit. Remove the trouble before replacing the fuse with the proper size. Don't try electrical repairs without pulling the switch to shut off the current.

FARM WORKSHOP SAVES TIME AND MONEY

In Northern Michigan, where supply houses and repair points are often far away, a farm work shop would be a big saver of time and money, advises Ed Rebman, County Agricultural Agent. Setting one up need not be expensive.

All a farmer needs is a space to work, heat, light, work benches and tool cabinets. About 500 square feet is the right size usually, but a lot of work can be done in 200 square feet. Much of the work is in the winter and heat is needed to keep people in the shop. To work, a farmer needs light—natural or artificial. A couple of good inexpensive reflectors behind incadescent lamps make a good light. If there are places to keep tools, on benches and in handy cabinets, the tools will stay where they are needed.

Maybe there will be room in the machinery storage building, in what used to be the horse stable, or in the garage. Tractors, wagons, or cars can be moved out when farm shop work is to be done. Corn planters, combines, balers and other tools are hard to move and their storage does not double so well as a farm shop.

The farm shop needs a few power tools—a half-inch electric an eight-inch power grinder and a farm-size gas or electric welder to fabricate metal.

Most farms could have a very-well equipped shop in five years if only one percent of the total machinery investment were put into shop equipment. Many farmers have at least one percent of their total machinery investment in hand tools and power tools scattered about the farm.

Working through winter months to make labor-saving devices or repair and maintain equipment will pay off very well on the farm where "Mr. Fix-it" is far away.

SPECIAL CIRCULAR AVAILABLE TO RESORT MANAGERS

Now that the 1952 tourist season is behind, it is time for tourist court and resort operators to look ahead to the 1953 season and to new ideas in business management, suggests Ed Rebman, county agricultural agent.

A special circular, R-601, on "A Business Management Guide for Resorts and Motor Courts" is available from the county agricultural agent. Designed with up-to-date suggestions, it is planned to guide the small tourist business toward sucess.

Financing, employee training, advertising and promotion, reservations and desposits, guest hospitality, accounts and records and laws and regulations are come of the subjects.

Hints and procedures in this circular have been proved in successful resorts; they work; they will help to get business, notes Rebman. Ten operators of these types of business aided in the preparation of the circular material.

One feature of the circular is an example form and work sheet outlining a way to figure the charge for a room or cottage on basis of costs and returns. Use of this procedure insures the manager his charges are fair for the service.

The circular, R-601, on "A Business Management Guide for Resorts and Motor Courts" by Robert W. McIntosh, extention specialist, also can be obtained by writing the Tourist and Resort Service, Michigan State College.

First Mich. Traffic Court Conference

The First Traffic Court Conference was announced recently by the Court Committee of the Michigan Traffic Safety Federation by the Chairman of the Committee, Judge Raymond W. Starr of Grand Rapids, Michigan. It will be held at Michigan State College January15, 16,17,1953.

The Conference is under the auspices of the Michigan State College, the American Bar Assoiation, the Traffic Institute of Northwestern University, the Michigan Municipal Judges Association, the Michigan Association of Justices of the Peace, the Michigan Municipal League, the Michigan Traffic Safety Federation, the Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police and the Michigan State Safety Commission. Many other groups are being asked to serve as sponsors and cooperating organizations.

In explaining the importance of the Court Conference Judge Starr said, "It is generally recognized that the courts of Michigan exert one of the most important influences in deterring motorists from committing traffic violations which cause accidents. While it is the law enforcement agencies who apprehend the violators it is courts which set the penalty for those found guilty and it is this penalty which serves to discourage future violators. In addition, it is the records of the courts which point to "repeaters" and establish an important basis for driver's license suspension."

The Court Conference will be attended by Circuit Judges, Municipal Judges, Justices of the Peace, City Attorneys and Prosecutors. Prominent persons from national organizations and key Michigan authorities will participate in the program.

Michigan Mirror

Gov. G. Mennen Williams would have been a mighty fine Santa Claus this year, but the Michigan senate stole his thunder in a move involving a possible split in G O P ranks as well as "politics as usual."

The governor had dropped very fine appointments in the stockings of John J. Kozaren and Charles R. A. Smith. Kozaren, Hamtramek Democrat, had been reappointed to the liquor control commission. Smith, Detroit Negro attorney, had been named to the workmens compensation commission. Neither appointment had been approved by the senate.

And so when the lawmakers came back Dec. 18, to authorize more borrowing power for the state's schools, they turned both men out in the cold, throwing a wet blanket on any hot rumors that the olive branch would fly over the capitol.

Williams has assumed his third term as governor apparently determined to cooperate with Republicans as far as humanly possible. The governor's career timetable long has been a question, but it most certainly includes a crack at Ferguson's senate seat in 1954.

It follows that Williams will lean over backwords to promote harmony between his office and the legislature to set his house in order in Michigan before taking a go at the senate. Just before the special session he made it official when he asked the C.I.O.-P.A.C. to keep its criticism constructive.

But the Republicans apparently are not about to accept the sprig of olive the Democrats are offering. Says one, just after the governor's latest appointments had been turned down: "This is one way we can hurt Williams." This may sound a bit shortsighted, but the Republicans don't want Williams in Washington any more than they wanted him to be governor.

However, the vote on Kozaren verified what capitol observers have suspicioned for some time—there is strife in the senate G.O.P. ranks. Republicans hold a 25 to 7 majority in the upper chamber. But the vote to confirm Kozaren was 14 to 14. Some place along the line seven Republicans jumped the political fence.

Cause: The younger Republicans have been trying to take over the senate reins. Under the lead of Senators Creighton Coleman (Marshall) and Carlton Morris (Kalamazoo), the "young turks" have been edging out some of the old timers. And the oldsters don't take too kindly to this treatment.

Wise in the ways of political maneuvering the older heads are sure to come up with something to counteract the so-called coup of the youngsters.

In the hassle over senate control, Govenor Williams maybe able to sneak through some of his appointments and perhaps a bit of legislation.

He isn't counting on it.

From here it looks as though the old battle is still on.

Michigan Schools, now in the greatest period in history, can expect a 37 percent increase in enrollment in the next five years. Dr. John F. Thaden, M.S.C. sociologist, predicts a 1956 registration of 1,465,000 pupils as compared to 1,067,000 in the spring of 1951. The increase will require 13,000 more classrooms and an equal number of additional teachers, he warns.

Lieut.-Gov. William C. Vandenberg is still bitter over his defeat for the gubernatorial nomination in the August primaries. The Holland man, who conducted his campaign through the dry interests and from the pulpits of the state, says; "Government has nothing I want—nor does the Republican party."

Apple Pie Baking Champion Tells How She Does It

You too can bake an apple pie —an apple pie that may well earn a blue ribbon.

Mrs. Harvey Rutherford, wife of a Decatur dairy farmer and mother of six children, was recently acclaimed Michigan's apple pie baking champion in a contest at the annual meeting of the Michigan State Horticultural Society in Grand Rapids.

Her entry topped 61 other pies entered by county winners from all parts of Michigan. It earned her $50 of top prize money furnished by the Michigan State Apple Commission. It was acclaimed by the judges as a "truly outstanding achievement in culinary art."

Now Mrs. Rutherford tells how she did it—gives out all her secrets so you too can bake a championship pie.

Here is her recipe:

Crust: 1½ cups unsifted flour; one teaspoon baking powder; one-half cup lard; one teaspoon salt; six tablespoons cold milk. Cut lard into dry ingredients and add milk. Mix with serving knife. Divide for crusts and roll.

Filling: Enough thinly sliced Michigan Northern Spy apples to fill slightly more than level full a 9 inch pie dish; one cup sugar; one tablespoon flour; one-fourth teaspoon nutmeg; one-half teaspoon cinnamon; one tablespoon butter. Mix dry ingredients together, placing half on bottom crust. Place sliced apples on dry mixture and sprinkle remainder of mix on top. Dot top with butter. Moisten edge of crust with water; seal with pastry decorator; coat crust with cream. Bake at 450 degrees for 10 to 15 minutes and 325 degrees for 45 minutes.

Thin Lake Ice May Be Misleading

Ice conditions during early days of the ice fishing season vary considerably with the weather, and the conservation department warns fishermen to take no chances when temperatures rise. Thin ice will support a few fishermen and some shanties, but may be misleading and collapse when large numbers of fishermen, shanties and automobiles begin to use it.

Sympathy is what one woman offers another in exchange for the details.

THESE ARE THE LUCKIEST PEOPLE

Read the amazing adventures of 1952's "Luckiest people." One won a fortune. Another survived a spectacular plunge. Another regained her eyesight after 23 years of darkness, and a baby pronounced dead, when apparently still-born, owed her life to a policeman. See The American Weekly with this Sunday's (January 4) issue of Detroit Sunday Times.

The path of least resistance is usually down hill.

South Arm Farm Bureau Met

The December meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Ingalls, with a larger attendance than at any other meeting this year.

We were happy to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Ted Mockerman and Mr. and Mrs. William Boss as new members for 1953. Mr. and Mrs. Claude Gilkerson, Sr., are also new members, and we hope to see them at our January meeting.

After group singing, Mrs. G. Klooster and Mrs. T. Floyd French reported on County and District Women's meetings held recently.

Those present divided into three groups for discussion of this month's Farm News questions. It was felt that members should see that their county Legislative Committee and Legislative Counsels at Lansing, Stanley Powell and Dan Reed, be on the alert to discourage government control of farmers' co-operatives. Personal letters to our legislators were also recommended. It was the opinion of the majority of the group that if our co-operatives are run successfully, there will be no need for government control, and that if a co-operative has paid off its indebtedness to the government there should be no necessity for further government control.

Mrs. Klooster read two Christmas poems. After an exchange of gifts and a potluck lunch, we adjourned to meet with Mr. and Mrs. French in January.

The Servicemens' LETTER

Hi Fellas:

Honestly, men, I don't quite know where to start this week. If you could see the stack of material there is in front of me you would wonder too. Don't think that I'm kicking—after all I've been asking for letters, haven't I?

Well, here goes. Delwin and Darwin Morris were in town this past week. They informed me that they were here for a fifteen day leave, following which they are to report back to Fort Devens, Massachusetts for shipment to Germany.

Every once in a while I come across someone who has been in the service quite a while and has not been receiving this paper. Bob Bundy arrived home last week to spend thhe Christmas at home. He has been in the Air Force since last spring and his address is now: A|3C Robert L. Bundy, AF 16 416 974, 3364 Stu Sqdn, Amarillo AFB, Texas. Bob was home on a 14 day leave and was due back in Amarillo on January 4th. He is at present studying Air Frame Repair and expects to be there for six more weeks. Forest Muma is also in Amarillo AFB in the 3320 Tech Trng Wing, 3365 Stu Sqdn. Have you two men seen each other yet?

A|B Ervin L. Prevo, AF 16 429 980, went into the Air Force on December 18th and is now in Flt 2215 of the 3669 Trng Sqdn at Sampson AFB, New York. How is your basic coming, Ervin?

Here's a change of address for Donald Trojanek. Pvt. Donald Trojanek, US 55 248 358, Co 'B', 370 Armd Inf Bn, APO 46, c|o PM, New York, N. Y. Now that you have arrived how about a letter, Don?

Norman Howard's Christmas Card to the club contained the following note: "Will let you know I have received every paper and enjoyed them very much. I am being discharged the 7th of January." Congratulations on the completion of your hitch, Norman.

Bob Farmer writes from Japan, "Believe me, Jake, I have been going to write for quite some time, but just haven't gotten around to it. I have been getting the papers every week and it sure is wonderful. It sure does a lot for us guys over here. I would like to thank everyone who has something to do with sending us the paper.

'I am in southern Japan, the name of the island is "Kyushu" and the name of the base I am on is "Stazuke". It's quite a nice base. I am still working in radio and believe me it's a good job. The 23rd of January I am going to school again in the northern part of Japan, at Johnson Air Force Base. It's advanced school. This should be the last of radio school for me until I get out of service.

'I haven't run across anyone from home over here as yet but probably will sooner or later. It sure would be nice to see someone from around home. Well, Jake, the food is good over here and the service is treating me fine. Other than that there isn't too much more to say except that I would like to wish all the folks back home and all the guys in the service a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year. A|3C Robert C. Farmer, AF 16 379 489, 6160th Comm Sqdn, Box 91, APO 929, c|o PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Another new address is: A|B George W. Walker, AF 16 429 625, 3701 BMTS, Flight 1265, Lackland AFB, Texas. George, a lot of East Jordan men have been there ahead of you. Maybe you can find their names here and there around you in Lackland.

Here's a letter from the Atlantic Fleet Service Force aboard the USS Diamond Head concerning the ship which Fred Burbank is serving on. "The Diamond Head, recently returned to Norfolk, Va., from a cruise in the Mediterranean, made the headlines of several civilian and military publications when she brought back two rare specimens of Barbary apes from Gibraltar. The monkeys were gifts from Sir Gordon H. A. MacMillan, the Governor General of Gibraltar, who placed them aboard for delivery to the National Zoological Society in Washington, D. C.

'The two Barbary apes are rare specimens of "sima sylvania", or rock monkeys, found only in North Africa and on the Rock of Gibraltar. It is believed that when the monkeys—now numbering only 45—become extinct on Gibraltar, the British fortress will lose its invincibility.

'The two apes were a constant source of amusement to the crew and personnel of the Diamond Head, who became quite attached to their hairy but tail-less wards. An officer was placed in charge of the apes and dubbed with the official title of "SCABLant", representing Supreme Commander Allied Baboons, Atlantic. A crew member also created an "official" flag, depicting a bright yellow monkey's hand holding a half-peeled banana on a royal blue background."

Now don't blame that one on your sister, Fred. That one came from your head office.

Roy Hebden and Jim Graham are home from Germany. Roy was in the office today and introduced himself. He arrived in the states on December 20th and is now home on a 30 day leave. Following his leave he is to report at the Knoxville, Tennessee Municipal Airport for duty there. Jim Graham was supposed to come home by way of Camp Custer and was supposed to be home on the 25th. I haven't seen him as yet but they say he is in town.

Ernest Pinney, a member of the Air Rescue Force in Japan has re-enlisted for another three years of service over there. He seems to like his berth with the Rescue men. He has a new address: A|1C Ernest Pinney, AF 16 323 082, 39th A. R. S., 3rd A. R. G. APO 75, c|o PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Gerald Crandall writes from Royan, Fance, "Just a few lines to say I have a new address now. It is 7803 Aug Det, APO 21, c|o PM, New York, N. Y. I have yet to hear from my brother, Claude, but they tell me he is up in Germany and I will try to see him on New Years." Claude's address is Prov Co 2236, APO 872, c|o PM, New York, N. Y. That's another of those provisional company addresses. It has always been a question in my mind as to just how soon a GI in one of those shipping company's gets his mail. Can anyone answer that one for me?

I would also like to know what the Army has been doing with Glen Young's papers. For about a year now they have been going overseas in care of APO 7 out of San Francisco. But just this week Glen was in the office and told me that he had been in the states for about eight months and has not reeeived a single copy of the paper as yet. Needless to say we are discontinuing that copy at once.

Glen is still in the service but was here in East Jordan attending the funeral of his father-in-law, "Doc" Gibbard. He will give us his new address os soon as he gets back to camp and you will hear more from him in this letter then.

Glen's brother, Carl, arrived in the states on December 20th and we expect to be seeing him before too long.

Stanley Antoine was home for Christmas. He arrived here on the 20th and is due back at Sheppard Field on January 5th. I couldn't get much out of Stanley other than that the AF was treating him fine. His address is A|3C Stanley Antoine, AF 16 417 102, Sqd 3751, Bks 897, Sheppard Field, Wichita Falls, Texas. According to my records Stanley is the only one from EJ at that field now.

Here's a letter from Brock Peacock. "Well, I finally got to Old Germany on the 11th. It took 11 days on the boat and 1½ days on the train. We're stationed just outside of Mannheim in a barracks that houses the whole outfit. There are nine men in the room I'm in and most they have in one room is twelve. There are 5 floors with the attic, a dayroom, and in the basement there is a barber shop and tailor shop. Right across the street there is a PX that has almost everything. There are two clubs on Post. The one an EM club has a 5 piece band that knows every American composed song and they really can play them. The other club belongs to the Latvian Army (which is an honor guard) and has beer for only 12c for a 14 oz. bottle and ham sandwiches for only a dime apiece.

'I went into town this weekend and I found out things aren't as cheap as some people tell you. In fact in a lot of things there isn't any difference between our prices and theirs. I went around Saturday night hitting the Cafes and doing a little window shoppng. There are still quite a few bombed out places laying around.

'Yesterday I celebrated my first Wedding Anniversary and within another month I should be a father. My wife is living with my mother in Petoskey.

'Well, Jake, there isn't much more to say except my APO number has been changed again. Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to everyone. Pfc Brock G. Peacock, RA 16 355 695, 334th C|R Co., APO 403-A, c|o PM, New York, N. Y."

Thanks for the letter, Brock. The Morris twins are coming over your way soon. Looks like you will have plenty of company.

The Public Information Office of the 8th Armored Division at Camp Chaffee, Arkansas, sends us the following news release:

"Pvt Gerald O. Olson has been selected to attend the 5th Armored Division's Field Wireman's school. During the intensive eight week course, Olson will receive classroom instruction in map reading, military signs and symbols, and basic electricity. He will also be given 32 hours on pole climbing techniques.

'Before he becomes a wire specialist, Olson will learn to install and operate various switchboards. He will become a wire construction crew man and plan, carry out and maintain wire nets. His final week will be devoted to practical maneuvers involving an infantry regiment and its supporting artillery battalion.

'Before entering the Army, Pvt Olson was a printer with the Charlevoix County Herald, East Jordan, Michigan."

Sounds to me like the Army is up to it's old game again of making something out of you which you ain't in the first place.

Another man home for Christmas was Earl Bennett. He had a 14 day leave and is due back at Chanute AFB on January 4th.

Dale Gee arrived in town on the wings of the storm and has been on the jump ever since. Christmas is a very busy time to arrive anyplace. We understand that Dale will be traveling west again following his leave here and will leave his wife and family in Washington State while he proceeds on to Alaska alone via the Alcan Highway. Dale plans on spending the winter alone up there and then sending for his family in the spring.

Jim Lewis has a new address. Evidently Jim is training with the Chemical Corps. His new address is: Pvt James P. Lewis, US 55 287 184, 529th Engr Gas Gen Det, c|o 47th E. C. Co., Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri.

A new address for Ed Drapeau finds him down about as far as one can go south in these United States—in fact right on the Mexican border. It is: A|3C Jean E. Drapeau, AF 16 402 928, 3640 Maint Sqd, Laredo AFB, Laredo, Texas. Say, Ed, the next time you get into town why don't you call up my brother, Howard, who lives at 1506 Convent in Laredo. He works out at some Air Field around Laredo. Who knows, perhaps he is working in the same hanger with you. He told me that if anyone from EJ ever got down there to let him know and he would have them up for a good meal. His wife's a good cook, too. Tell him hello for me, Ed.

Jim Lewis—did you know Paul Wilson while here in school? He is there in Fort Leonad Wood with you. His address is: Pvt Paul S. Wilson, RA 16 429 725, Co C, 6th QMBNCCR, Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri.

Tom Leu was discharged from the Army on December 26th. (Wasn't that mean of them not to let him get home for Christmas). He is proceeding home by auto and should be getting in here before too long now. I haven't heard what his plans are for the future but imagine he will go back to school.

So long for now, fellas.

"Jake" Snyder

Jake sent up eight pages of copy for this letter this morning and said there would be about four more tomorrow (Wednesday), then stopped in at noon and told us that he was headed for home. Says he thinks he has the flu or "something" and he wouldn't have the rest of it this week. He promises to catch up on any omissions next week or as soon as he feels better.
